

IN THE CIRCLE OF SOCIETY

FIFTY YEARS WED;
CELEBRATE EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sauter Receive Friends on Golden Event.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sauter, of 1425 Tenth street, celebrated yesterday the golden anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. Sauter, up to two years ago, was the stage carpenter for the National Theater for twenty years and a number of the employees of the theater were present at the celebration. In token of their esteem Mrs. Sauter was presented with a handsome diamond brooch and Mr. Sauter a gold-headed cane.

During the afternoon the theater orchestra played several selections.

Mr. Sauter is one of the best known stage carpenters in the business, and is a past grand president of the Theatrical Mechanics' Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Sauter's four children were present for the occasion, two daughters, one a school teacher in the West; the other married and a resident of Washington, and two sons, Frank and Irwin, prominent young Washington business men.

Mrs. Francis Ruggles, formerly Miss Mabel Perkins, whose marriage was an important social event of the early summer, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, in their home, 1701 Connecticut avenue, for the past few days.

Upon her return to Fort Allen, where Lieutenant Ruggles is now stationed, Mrs. Ruggles was accompanied by her mother, Master Cleveland Perkins.

Miss Catherine Nelson returned to school yesterday after spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Commander and Mrs. V. P. Nelson, in their apartment in the Mendota.

General and Mrs. Anson Mills, of Dupont Circle, are the guests of friends in El Paso, Texas.

The Rev. Clement Brown and Mrs. Brown, of 1440 M street, have as their guests this week the American minister to Spain and Mrs. Collier. Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Brown will entertain at dinner in honor of their guests.

The Minister from Norway and Mme. Hauge arrived in New York from Paris yesterday on the steamer St. Paul, and came over to Washington today. They will occupy apartments in the Willard until their new home in Massachusetts avenue is completed.

Senator and Mrs. Rayner, of Maryland, and with them, Miss Evelyn, of Baltimore, arrived in Washington yesterday and will occupy apartments in the Highlands this winter.

Captain and Mrs. F. W. Harris and family, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived in Washington Saturday night. They will spend the winter here and have leased apartments in the Highlands.

Every afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock a pretty picture of human interest is enacted in the neighborhood of Lafayette Square, in which the actors are the clerical force of the State, War and Navy Departments, and a squirrel.

Mr. Squirrel, who is the star of the show, regularly at the hour when the Government buildings become their playground, the squirrel takes up his stand on the railing, and patiently waits to be fed.

The squirrel is well known and commensurate among the throng of men and women forget to stop and offer their donation, anxious to see the little animal who appears to have a wonderful capacity for devouring food. After receiving his supply of nourishment, Mr. Squirrel turns tail and is soon lost to sight in his cozy hollow, where he patiently awaits the proper hour next day, when he again solicits forth to his familiar rendezvous.

Mrs. Cornelia Curtis, of New York, is visiting her brother, George McClanahan, at Twenty-first and Q streets northwest.

Miss Enid Shaw, elder daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, returned to the Arlington yesterday after a visit of more than a month in Des Moines, where she acted as maid of honor at the wedding of Miss West and Dr. Paten, in that city.

Mrs. Symons, wife of Col. Thomas W. Symons, is at home this afternoon for the first time this season. She will be at home three Mondays in this month and will present her daughter, Miss Margaretta Symons, to society on these days. Miss Riggs will serve tea this afternoon for Mrs. Symons.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Capers and family have an apartment at the Cumberland, Thomas Circle, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Capers is the member of his State of the Republican national committee. He has just

BEFORE GOING TO SWEDEN

Recalled Minister Declines to Discuss Call at State Department—Mysterious Summons Home, Came As Surprise, It Is Said, to Him.

A. Grip, the Swedish minister, who for nearly seventeen years has been stationed in Washington, called today at the State Department to take leave, prior to his permanent departure, he having been recalled by his government.

Minister Grip was closeted several minutes with Secretary Root, and upon leaving the department he declined to state the nature of his visit further than to say that he had called to bid farewell. He would not say whether he expected to return to Washington.

Officials of the State Department have no official information that the minister has been recalled and do not expect any till his letter of recall is presented by his successor. Who his successor will be is not yet known.

Although there have been rumors the past year that Mr. Grip was not popular with the new independent government of Sweden, it is said that his recall came suddenly and without notice. The first intimation he received was in a cablegram Saturday morning, after receipt of which he caught the first train for New York to consult with the Swedish consul general there.

It is expected that Mr. Grip will leave the city within the next few days.

man's by Joseph Goldenberg. The out-of-town guests were Miss Zella Bayes, of Philadelphia, and Miss Florence Koch and Miss Amy Koch, of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. H. Joseph and daughter, Phyllis, of Baltimore, were recently guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Gaudorf, of this city.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Washington Hebrew Congregation will hold its monthly whist party at the Mercantile Club tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Friends in this city will be pleased to hear that Albert Julian Hendley has returned to his home, at the Plymouth, Thirtieth street. Mr. Hendley is traveling through the West, in the service of the United States Geological Survey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lulky, of Westminster street, were at home to friends and relatives last Sunday evening, in honor of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. There were music and dancing, after which the guests were invited to the dining room, where supper was served. Covers were laid for sixty.

At the Ladies' Whist given last Saturday night at the Mercantile Club, the prizes were won by Mrs. Harry King, Mrs. Lew Jackson, and Mrs. T. W. Nordlinger.

The Octagon Pleasure Club gave a theater party and banquet Thanksgiving night. Those in the party were Lester Neuman, Milton Goldsmith, Lester A. Marx, Arthur Neuman, Arthur Luchs, Max Auerbach, Bernard Haer, David Baez, Maurice Elsemann, Alfred Haas, Herbert Jacob, Leroy Rosenthal, Herbert Rich, David Stern, Melville Fisher, Milton King, and Stanley Fisher.
